- EIGHTH -

I desire and direct that such General Hospital Society of Connecticut use the funds derived from the gifts and bequests above given to it for charitable purposes in the furtherance of the best interest of the William Wirt Winchester Annex of said

Hospital Society, (which Annex is owned by said General Hospital Society of Connecticut, such Annex having been purchased and endowed with funds which I furnished), and especially for giving the best possible care and treatment to tuberculosis patients, who at my death may have then been admitted, and to those who may thereafter be admitted, to the said Annex.

- NINTH -

I direct that out of my general estate and as a part of the expenses of the administration thereof, my executor shall pay all inheritance taxes, state and national, so that the beneficiaries of the gifts herein made to them shall receive such gifts without the same being diminished by their having to pay such inheritance taxes.

- TENTH -

I hereby nominate and appoint the Union Trust Company of San Francisco, California, as the executor of this will, hereby giving it full power to sell any and all property of my estate, wherever situate, not hereinbefore specifically devised, and I hereby nominate and appoint the said Union Trust Company of San Francisco, California, as the Trustee of the trusts in this will mentioned and created, with full power as such trustee to carry out the said trusts, and to keep the funds of each and every of the said trusts invested in such manner as to produce the greatest income for the beneficiaries under said trusts which is consistent with the safety of such investments.

- ELEVENTH -

In making this will, I have had under consideration the fact that the property given and bequeathed is my own, and that, having no living ancestors or descendants of my own, I have both a legal and moral right to do as I wish with my own property.

If any of my heirs, legatees or devisees, or anyone else, contests or disputes the validity of this my last will and testament, or of any part thereof, either directly or indirectly, openly or covertly, through themselves or through others, it is my will and desire, and I declare that he or she or they shall receive no part whatever of my estate, and I hereby revoke any devise, gift or bequest herein made to anyone who so contests or disputes the validity of this will.

- TWELFTH -

I hereby declare that it is my wish and intention that every part of this will which is in itself valid shall remain in full force, even though any court or courts should decide or declare that, for any reason, some other part or parts is or are invalid.

- THIRTEENTH -

I hereby revoke and declare null and void any and all wills made by me previous to the date hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 23rd day of March A. D. 1920.

Sarah L. Winchester (SEAL)

The foregoing instrument was signed by the testatrix, Sarah L. Winchester, upon the day it bears date, in our presence, and she thereupon, at the time of subscribing the same, declared to us that the same was her last will and testament, and requested us to sign the same as witnesses thereto; and we thereupon, at her request and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, do hereby sign our names as witnesses thereto.
